

AGENDA

Form Ithaca presents: Coding for a Sustainable Future

October 30, 2014

11:30am – 1:00pm

Tompkins County Public Library

Borg Warner Room - West

Lunch provided

11:30am – 11:40am	Lunch & Introductions Overview of Cleaner Greener NYSERDA grant to implement a form-based code in the City and Town of Ithaca Introduction to project team, consultants, and partners
11:40am – 12:00pm	What is a Form-Based Code & How Does it Work? – Rob Steuteville, Noah Demarest, CJ Randall, David West Brief overview of form-based codes, opportunities, and challenges in the City and Town of Ithaca
12:00pm – 12:20pm	Sustainability in Ithaca & Implications for a FBC – Jessica Millman, Agora Group Overview of Sustainability Audit conducted by Jessical Millman as part of the City's Comprehensive Planning Process Discussion on how a FBC could help achieve goals in City and Town
12:20pm – 12:40pm	Lessons Learned from Buffalo New York's Buffalo GreenCode – Chuck Banas, Charles Banas Design and Chris Hawley, Insights into how a similar initiative played out in neighboring Buffalo, NY – what worked, what didn't, pitfall, and tips for an effective process and desirable outcome
12:40pm – 1:00pm	Discussion
Contact:	Rob Steuteville, Better! Cities and Towns rob@newurbannews.com
